FINDING GOD IN THE ORDINARY.

There's something very ordinary for a fisherman about washing nets.
Daily work, done with some drudgery but knowing that it is essential for a good catch of fish which would feed the family at this time Jesus called his first disciples.

There is something sacred about the ordinary.

Bathing a child, loving a spouse, daily employment, school, family time and all that goes to make up our days.

In the middle of this God can surprise us and call us into his service.

God is found in the ordinary.

The old Irish spirituality had blessings for everything – for milking cows, cleaning and dusting a room, visiting the sick and many more.

There were prayers for a safe journey and a happy death.

Our Irish spirituality found God as much in the mountains and people as in the church.

Give me O Lord a love for the ordinary;

remind me how ordinary you were for so much of your life. Amen.
