MESSAGE FROM BISHOP RAY TO THE KILLARNEY PASTORAL AREA

(the parishes of Killarney, Kilcummin, Fossa, Furies & Glenflesk)

I write to inform you that from this Summer the parish of Kilcummin will no longer have a priest resident in the parish. Each of the priests in the Killarney Pastoral Area will now have a role in ministering to the parish of Kilcummin. Kilcummin will continue to be a separate parish and will continue to have the fullness of parish life. This is the seventh situation in our diocese where a parish is without a resident priest. Sadly, there will be more parishes in the years ahead. Please continue to pray for vocations to the diocesan priesthood in our diocese.

The Diocesan Pastoral Team will provide whatever support the pastoral area requires during this time of transition. This new reality has positive dimensions. It provides an opportunity for laity to take their rightful place in leadership roles in our parishes.

Due to the commitment of clergy and laity and the preparation that has been underway at parish and Pastoral Area level over the past number of years, I believe Kilcummin parish and the Killarney Pastoral Area will adjust well. I offer you, the people and the priests of the Killarney Pastoral Area, my support at this time and will keep you in my prayers as you strive to respond to this new situation.

May God watch over us all with his fatherly care.
