REMEMBERING ALL WHO HAVE DIED IN THE PAST FIVE MONTHS

Today the Virgin Mother of God was assumed into heaven As a sign of sure hope and comfort to your pilgrim people. The weekend of the Feast of the Assumption (Saturday 15th) I invite parishes throughout the diocese to remember all who died since the advent of the corona virus restrictions five months ago. The restrictions have truly impacted on our funeral traditions.

- No loved ones at the hospital bedside
- No sympathising in funeral homes
- No shaking hands

No gathering after the burial for light refreshments or lunch Initially just ten at the funeral Mass

It has not been all negative. Many have found the guard of honour of neighbours along the route to church or cemetery very moving and supportive. Confined to home and with time on their hands people have had time and space to remember and grieve. Some have found the simple low-key funeral very intimate and personal. Christ Jesus always finds ways to console and strengthen.

This weekend of the Feast of the Assumption we remember all who have died since mid-March.

whether their deaths were linked to the corona virus or not whether sudden or after a prolonged illness, tragic or peaceful some were a great age others quite young.

Together we pray for and honour all the deceased, and we offer our support to their loved ones who mourn them. Amid the heartbreak of their going from us, there is the hope and consolation that they are gone to God. We entrust them to God's mercy.

Our Lady who witnessed Jesus death on the Cross knows the anguish of those who mourn. Our Lady who was present when the Risen Christ appeared to his disciples has full faith in Christ's offer of eternal life to all of us. The Feast of the Assumption gives us confidence that our loved ones who have died are alive with God.

God our Father, you crowned the Blessed Virgin Mary on the day of her Assumption with a glory beyond compare.

Grant that by her prayers, we may be saved by the mystery of your redemption, and share with her in the glory of eternal life. the new beginnings.
