Call: 01 5313331. For those who are getting married in the next few months and due to the current restrictions, please send an email to info@accord.ie, to find out the current procedures and to book your pre-marriage course as soon as possible.

SICK AND RETIRED PRIESTS COLLECTION will be taken up this weekend. This helps to support the care to priests who are sick, and to the priests who have retired after 50 years of faith-filled ministry in the diocese. As you know, the collection baskets are not being passed around at the moment, but there are collection boxes at the door at the beginning and end of Mass - it will be a joint collection for the Offertory and for the Sick & Retired priests fund. Thank you for your generosity at this challenging time.

TODAY'S GOSPEL: WHO DO YOU SAY THAT I AM?

In today's Gospel we hear Jesus say 'Who do you say that I am?' Who is Jesus? He is the Galilean carpenter who became an itinerant preacher, who turned water into wine, made the lame walk and the blind see, walked on water, multiplied a handful of loaves and fishes to feed thousands, got under the skin of secular and religious leaders of the day, was executed on a cross, was buried in a borrowed tomb, and three days later rose from the dead. Jesus wasn't a great teacher; he was the greatest teacher. He wasn't a great prophet; he was the greatest prophet. But more importantly, Jesus is the Christ, the long-awaited Messiah. Who is Jesus Christ for you?

THE PERMANENT DIACONATE — FINAL CALL

The diocese of Kerry is seeking candidates who feel they may have a calling to be permanent deacons. The diocese already has six deacons. The hope is to begin a "come and see" programme this autumn as a few have already expressed interest. Information leaflets on the permanent diaconate are available in the church. Any interested candidates should establish contact via a local priest or the diocesan office (admin@dioceseofkerry.org) by the 10th September, 2020.

FACE COVERINGS: This week, the Bishops of Ireland have encouraged and recommended that all those attending Mass to wear a face covering/mask/visor while in the Church, unless you can't for medical reasons or Children 12 and younger.
