Joining us for Mass over Christmas

We are delighted that we are now able to have congregations in the Churches for Mass, and we look forward to the Christmas season ahead with joy. However, we must follow the government and diocesan guidelines so as to ensure public health and safety as we gather together. Because of the regulations (leaving us with approx 20% capacity) we will be hugely limited in the number of people who can attend Mass in person, and while we will be having over double the number of Masses on Christmas Eve and Christmas Day, we expect that not everyone will be able to be in the Church for Mass. We won't have the same crowds, atmosphere, choirs or Children's Masses as we have had other years, but are blessed to have the same faith, hope and love of Christ that gathers us to celebrate the Birth of Christ our Hope.

We have a responsibility to control the numbers present, and so we will have to organise a ticket system whereby only those with a ticket will be able to attend, and those without a ticket will have to join us via the webcam or parish radio or avail of Mass on Radio Kerry or RTE. Tickets for attending Mass on Christmas Eve and Christmas Day will be free, and only be given out in person by calling into the parish office during our office hours, and only for the person's own household – it will not be possible to book them over the phone or email unfortunately. There is no right or easy way to do this, and we realise that many will be disappointed at not being able to be at Mass as they always have been.

What can I do?

- We ask for your understanding if it happens that you will not be able to attend Mass in person as you would so dearly wish.
- Please join us for Mass online for Christmas Eve or Christmas Day, and please gather with us for Mass on Christmas week and during the Christmas season to have your opportunity to receive Holy Communion over Christmas.
- Give your family crib a place of priority in your home this Christmas, and visit the crib in the Church as a family during Advent and Christmas.
- We ask for the help of our Eucharistic Ministers, Readers, and especially stewards (to comply with regulations) – if you can help as a steward please contact the Parish Office.
