ST POPE JOHN PAUL II ON THE ASSUMPTION OF OUR LADY:

"At her Assumption, Mary was "taken up to Life" – body and soul. She is already a part of "the first fruits" (1 Cor 15, 20) of our Saviour's redemptive death and resurrection. The Son took his human life from her; in return He gave her the fullness of communion in divine life. She is the only other being in whom the mystery has already been completely accomplished. In Mary the final victory of Life over death is already a reality. And, as the Second Vatican Council teaches: "In the most holy Virgin the Church has already reached the perfection whereby she exists without spot or wrinkle" (Lumen Gentium, 65). In and through the Church we too have hope of "an inheritance which is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for us" (cf 1 Pet 1, 4).

SACRED SPACE - PLACES OF PRAYER IN KERRY DIOCESE

Over the past few weeks we have been journeying throughout various places of pilgrimage within our own Diocese of Kerry. This is our final week and we finish by reflecting on the monastic tradition of Muckross Abbey.

Muckross Abbey:

The Franciscan friary of Irrelagh, now known as Muckross Abbey was founded for the Observatine Franciscans about 1448 by Daniel McCarthy Mor. The friars remained in occupation at Muckross at least intermittently and despite the dissolution of the monasteries until Cromwellian times.
The present well-preserved ruins include a church with a wide, square tower and fine windows, and a vaulted cloister with an arcade of arches around a square courtyard. In the middle of the courtyard grows an ancient yew tree, said traditionally to be as old as the Abbey. Muckross Abbey was the burial place of local chieftains, and in the 17th and 18th centuries, the three Gaelic poets, Geoffrey O'Donoghue, Aodhagan O'Rathaille and Eoghan Rua O'Suilleabhain. The graveyard in the grounds surrounding the Abbey is still in use with a number of burials there each year.

Prayer for the Week:

Lord my God, my loving Father, you have made me to know you, to love you, to serve you, and thereby to find and fulfil myself. I know that you are in all things and that every path can lead me to you, but of them all there is one especially by which you want me to come to you. Since I will do what you want of me, I pray that you send your Holy Spirit to me: Into my mind to show me what you want of me; into my heart to give me the determination to do it, and to do it with all my love, with all my mind and with all my strength. Amen (Prayer to know one's vocation)

PRAYER TO OUR LADY ASSUMED INTO HEAVEN:

Immaculate Virgin, Mother of Jesus and our Mother, we believe in your triumphant assumption into heaven where the angels and saints acclaim you as Queen of Heaven and earth.

We join them in praising you and bless the Lord who raised you above all creatures.

With them we honour you.

We are confident that you watch over our daily lives and we ask that you intercede for us now.

(Mention your request)

We are comforted by our faith in the coming Resurrection and we look to you for prayers and comfort.

After this earthly life, show us Jesus, the blessed fruit of your womb, O kind, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary.
O Queen Assumed into Heaven, pray for us. Amen.
