SANDY & GUESTS GAVE OF THEIR BEST

Sandy Kelly

We were treated to the most uplifting Concert last Monday evening with Sandy, Gerry, Lorraine & Gerry's excellent band. A beautiful selection of songs & music made it a most enjoyable evening and there has been a tremendous reaction. Very many thanks to the following - The Parish Pastoral Council who welcomed everyone as they arrived & gifted everyone with a stylus pen. To Patrick O'Donoghue & staff of the INEC for the very professional manner in which everything was organised. To everyone who facilitated ticket sales within and outside the Parish - a huge thank you. To Maura Connolly Little, Dublin for her tremendous work in liaising with Sandy and myself to ensure that everything went off successfully. To Eoin Hand for his great job as MC. As it is impossible to thank everyone individually - my heartfelt thanks to one and all and especially to everyone from within and outside the Parish who attended on the night. Sandy will be bringing out a book and a CD shortly, when these are released we will let you know. As Sandy alluded to, this was her first time on stage in two years. What a brilliant come back. Well done Sandy! You & guests gave us a super night.

LEAVE IT TO JESUS

Do we ever think of, or pray, the humble prayer of the tax collector, as he stood inside the door of the Church? "Lord, be merciful to me a sinner". This prayer should be constantly on our lips and in our heart. Here in Ireland, we are living in an age where the characters of people are no longer private during their time on earth or when they are deceased. At least in times past, any good deeds were reserved for a topic of conversation during the days of mourning. I always find it so consoling that it is to Jesus that we all give an account of ourselves. It is so reassuring that it is Jesus who will judge us, because His powerful message calls the proud to repent and assures those who despair of new hope. Speaking ill of people, I am drawn to a quotation from Thomas A Kempis. This gives me food for thought and I hope it does the same for you. "You are not the better because you are praised or the worse because you are blamed, for as you are, you are, and whatever is said to you, you are not better than almighty God, the searcher of your heart will testify who you are".

Happy the people the Lord has chosen as His very own. It is to God therefore that each one of us gives an account of ourselves. Thank God that it is our Brother Jesus who is our Judge.
