Proceedings will commence at 2pm and the launch will be performed by John Tarrant, sportswriter and local correspondent.

Very sincerely I want to thank all who turned up at Derrinagree Church, beautifully prepared by our faithful sacristan, on Thursday 10th for Mass of giving thanks. And to those who couldn't be there, thank you for your contact. As usual the Derrinagree Choir were at their brilliant best.

I was amazed at the numbers who came out such a bad night and went to the hall afterwards. It was great to see so many faces that have become so familiar as I ministered in Dromtariffe Parish. Thanks to the Parish Council for their brilliant organization and hard work, and to the priests of the pastoral area and Fr Bartie also. May all go well with them and parish volunteers in an ever-increasing workload.

Despite covid and hospital visits I very much enjoyed my time in Dromtariffe, and the very supportive Christian community. I must thank also the many people who gave me cards and generous gifts – too numerous to reply to individually. Thanks also for the beautiful presentation of such a gorgeous lamp.

Even though I have moved on, I have left behind Mary Pat who has a direct hot line to the Pope now. Congratulations to Mary Pat for a lifetime of devotion to Dromagh church.

May God's blessing be on every home and individual in Dromtariffe.
