His Kingdom will have no end

If you look through history books you will see that most countries were ruled by royalty of one sort or another. In many cases, kings and queens ruled by 'divine right'. Many inherited their throne from their ancestors and advanced their kingdom through war and battles. They all assumed their reign would never end. How history has proved them wrong.

Today we celebrate the Feast of Christ the King. Strangely the gospel today is from Luke and tells of Jesus' Crucifixion. Jesus is slowly dying on the cross; on either side of him are two thieves. One of them verbally taunts him while the other acknowledges his guilt and utters the profound request, 'Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom.' Jesus replies, 'I promise you, today you will be with me in paradise.' So, the first person to enter the Kingdom of God is a repentant thief, not a queen nor a king.

The Kingdom of God is not based on power, wealth, prestige. God's Kingdom is based on love, mercy, service, justice and reconciliation. Jesus is a King but he does not and cannot make us follow him. He calls us by our name and invites us to follow him freely out of love because we wish to do so.

Jesus is taunted by different groups while on the cross. Surely Christ who raised the dead, healed the sick, walked on water and forgave sinners was capable of saving himself.

But he does not do so. His Kingship is not about self-preservation. His ministry was marked by healing and forgiveness. He came to serve, not to be served.

Prayer to Christ the King

Shepherd King transform our desire for power, wealth and approval into a longing to serve you and others.

Make us ever aware of how our lives impact those most in need of our generous service, and give us the courage to change the way we live
Amen.

Screening of "The Letter"

A call to action for the world in the CYMS

on Thursday 24th November, at 7.00pm

In 2015, Pope Francis wrote Laudato Si', an encyclical letter about the environmental crisis, to every single person in the world.

A few years later, four voices from the poor, the indigenous, the youth and wildlife were invited to a conversation with Pope Francis himself.

This 80-minute documentary follows their journey to Rome and the extraordinary experiences that took place there and is packed with powerfully moving personal stories alongside the latest

At the launch of 'The Letter' last month in Rome, Cardinal Czerny, said "This beautiful film – a heart-breaking yet hopeful story – is a clarion cry to people everywhere: wake up! get serious! act together! act now!"

Everyone is welcome to the CYMS on Thursday night, to see "The Letter" for themselves and to hear its urgent message for humanity.
