Priest on call this Sunday

Fr. Danny Broderick, (087) 9061255

The Trinity Icon (Over) also called The Hospitality of Abraham is an icon created by Russian painter Andrei Rublev in the 15th century. It is his most famous work and the most famous of all Russian icons, and it is regarded as one of the highest achievements of Russian art. Scholars believe that it is one of only two works of art (the other being the Dormitio Cathedral frescoes in Vladimir) that can be attributed to Rublev with any sort of certainty.

The Trinity depicts the three angels who visited Abraham at the Oak of Mamre (Genesis 18:1-8), but the painting is full of symbolism and is interpreted as an icon of the Holy Trinity. At the time of Rublev, the Holy Trinity was the embodiment of spiritual unity,^[6] peace, harmony, mutual love and humility.

A Prayer for Vocations based on the words of Pope Francis

LORD of the Harvest, BLESS young people with the gift of courage to respond to your call. Open their hearts to great ideals, to great things.

INSPIRE all of your disciples to mutual love and giving — for vocations blossom in the good soil of faithful people.

INSTILL those in religious life, Parish ministries, and families with the confidence and grace to invite others to embrace the bold and noble path of a life consecrated to you.

UNITE us to Jesus through prayer and Sacrament, so that we may cooperate with you in building your reign of mercy and truth, of justice and peace. Amen.

We Pray for our dead: and all those whose anniversaries occur at this time

Feast of the Holy Trinity

The relationships of the Holy Trinity are relationships of love and the unity and harmony of life. The life of the Trinity is to be the aim of each parish community in the Trinity.

As a parish community we encourage and pray vocation to the Priesthood, and put the question out there to someone you may feel has a vocation to the Priesthood;

“Did you ever think of becoming a priest?”

Seeing your Life through the Lens of the Gospel
John 3:16-18

1. The reading evokes contrasting images of God, a God who judges and a God who saves. We might reflect on how our image of God has changed with the years. What has helped you to believe in a God whose will is that you should have eternal life?
 2. God sent his Son into the world for this purpose, that we might have eternal life. How has the story of Jesus helped you to have that kind of faith?
 3. The eternal life promised is life that begins now, and survives all forms of death, failure, defeat and humiliation. What has helped you to have that sense of being alive, even in painful and disappointing circumstance
- John Byrne OSA

Though for the Day

The leaving Certificate is about to begin. Students agonise about what will come up in the opening English Paper.” I hope Heaney comes up. I spent a lot of time on him...” Almost 60 years a go I probably agonised in a similar way (to a far less pressurised extent), but what its worth here is my “Brief Open Letter o this years class.” Dear Students. Worry Not! In 10, 20, 30,years time, what will it matter what “came up this year? What will come up in that time is life - with all its joys sorrows, vagaries, challenges, disappointments, demands, I hope the last five years have equipped you well for that. For now just do your best. (Stolen Moments, John Quinn, Veritas.)
