THE PARADOX OF OUR AGE

We have bigger houses but smaller families;
more convenience, but less time.

We have more degrees but less sense;
More knowledge but less judgment;
More experts, but more problems;
More medicines but less healthiness.

We've been all the way to the moon and back, but have trouble in crossing the street to meet our new neighbour.

We build more computers to hold more copies than ever, but have less real communication;
We have become long on quantity, but short on quality.

Tall men but short characters;
Steep profits but shallow relationships.
It's a time when there is much in the window,
but nothing in the room.

~Dalai Lama

'Let us then be what we are, and speak what we think, and in all things keep ourselves
loyal to truth. ~Henry Wadsworth Longfellow
