Today begins the celebration of the Great Week – Holy Week – which will reach its high point in the final three days, the crown of the Church's liturgical year.

Today's Mass is dominated by reading of the Passion – that is the Gospel narrative of the Lord's capture, sufferings and death. The passion, death and resurrection of the lord are a constant reminder that if we wish to share in the glory of the risen Saviour, we must first work to resemble him in humility, meekness and self-denial.
