Easter

3rd. Sunday of Easter

During the Easter season the Church continues to celebrate Jesus' resurrection from the dead, even in these dark pandemic days. Today, we join together to worship God, who has brought about the great victory over sin and death in which we hope.

Prayer

O God of mystery, out of death you delivered Christ Jesus, and he walked in hidden glory with his disciples. Stir up our faith, that our hearts may burn within us at the sound of his word and our eyes be opened to recognise him in the breaking of the bread. Grant this through Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you now and Always in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever.

Introduction to the Scripture Readings

Acts 3:13-15, 17-19 Many of St Peter's words are found in the first two readings. The first contains his speech on Pentecost day, and the second is part of one of his letters, where Peter reminds us that Christ paid the price of our salvation.

Luke 24:13-35 The Gospel describes the appearance of Jesus to the two disciples on the road to Emmaus.

Seeing Your Life Through The Lens Of The Gospel.

1. When we are not expecting it to happen, even a good event can startle us. So it was with the disciples when Jesus appeared to them. He sought to calm them and helped them to see the good news behind what had initially alarmed them. Who has been a Jesus person for you by helping you to find meaning and good news in life?

2. Jesus helped the disciples to find new hope, but he did not give them easy answers. He asked them to see the facts before their eyes. He wanted them to learn from the lived experience they were having. As a parent, teacher, friend, or guide, have you been a Jesus person to another, helping him/her to find hope and purpose in life by learning from his/her experiences? Who has done this for you?

3. Jesus opened their minds to 'understand the scriptures', and the effect was transformative. Perhaps there have been times when a new and deeper understanding of scripture has had a transformative impact on you. Recall the experience and give thanks for those who opened the scriptures for you.

➡ 4. The resurrection experience empowered the disciples to be witnesses. Unexpected possibilities for the future surfaced when it seemed that hope had gone. When have new possibilities opened for you after a 'resurrection' experience: recovery of health when it did not seem possible, new opportunities after failure or disappointment, inner healing after a deep hurt, etc?

Diocesan Collection: The annual collection for Peter's Pence will be taken up at all Masses next weekend. This collection supports Pope Francis' many charitable initiatives promoted by him.

Eucharistic Ministers

The role of the extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion is for baptized and confirmed individuals who will assist the Priest or Deacon in the distribution of Holy Eucharist at Mass. Parishioners are invited to nominate someone to act as a Eucharist Minister in the Parish either by Post or by emailing the Parish Office. Please remember to include your name and a contact mobile number with your nomination. Thank you.
