THE DIOCESE OF KERRY CELEBRATES YOUTH WEEK - a dynamic initiative to encourage all our young people. Parishes across the Diocese are celebrating this week from 20th to 26th. Here in Glenflesk we want to close this wonderful week with a Youth Mass on Saturday 27th April at 6 p.m. in St Agatha's. Young people will be involved in many ways in this celebration of our Sunday Liturgy and the Confirmation children of the parish will present a project that they have been working on, on the life of our Patron St. Agatha. We invite all families of young people and adults to come and share our joy in the lives of our young people.

A NOTE FROM FR JIM.....

Archbishop Fulton Sheen once said, "Neither theological knowledge nor social action alone is enough to keep us in love with Christ unless both are preceded by a personal encounter with Him. Theological insights are gained not only from between two covers of a book, but from two bent knees before an altar. The Holy Hour becomes like an oxygen tank to revive the breath of the Holy Spirit in the midst of the foul and toxic atmosphere of the world" Today I'd like to congratulate the boys and girls of our parish who received the fire of the Holy Spirit in Confirmation on Thursday and I'd like to thank everyone involved in the preparation of a great day. But as Archbishop Fulton Sheen reminds us without continuous personal prayer all will be in vain.
