Thank you Tom! For Holy week in Knockanure parishioners took a little wooden cross from the Church and let it represent for them anyone they wished to pray for, or worry they have, or burden they are carrying. These were then returned to the altar on Good Friday for the Stations of the Cross and their intentions were remembered. We wish to offer a special Thank You to Tom Fitzgerald, Knockanure who made 80 of these little crosses Mile buiochas Tom.
