The booklet focuses on the request of Pope Francis that we might pray for his intentions throughout the year. It has been prepared for parish adoration groups but could be used by anyone visiting the Blessed Sacrament for a moment of prayer. The booklets could be left in a place to be used by anyone visiting the Blessed Sacrament or shared with your parish group. ### Reflection

Prayer to St. Dymphna – Temperance - Generous St. Dymphna, like all Christ's martyrs you gained this crowning grace because you prepared for it by a life of self-denial. By faithfulness in smaller things, you were ready for your final trial. Please teach us by your example and help to use the good things of life so that we may not miss our chance for life eternal. Help us, too, to watch and pray for ourselves and others. Amen. Feast day May15
