Doing Nothing

Do nothing every now and again,
it helps you to relax.
And let your thoughts go wandering along some mountain tracks.
Do nothing – it's quite wonderful.
Watch raindrops on the glass,
see the leaves float in the autumn
and sunbeams on the grass.
See the way the clouds keep moving high above the trees.
Find a little peace and quiet moments sure to please.
If your batteries need recharging
And life has lost its smile,
Be still and let the world go by.
Do nothing for a while.
