the missions. The Sisters will tell us about their work and would be grateful for your support.

We pray for humanitarian aid for all whose suffering is so great as a result of the twenty-one months of war in Gaza: for those whose loved ones have been killed; for medical care for all who have been seriously injured; for adequate supplies of food and water for all, from the youngest child to the oldest adult. Lord, hear us.

Prayer to Discover Your Vocation

God our Father, send workers into your harvest. May the Spirit we received in baptism touch the hearts of many to offer themselves in priesthood, religious life and other forms of service. Give the parents and families of our diocese the wisdom and courage to support young people in searching for and following the call of God in their lives, Amen.

Pope Leo XIV on X: Looking without walking by, halting the frantic pace of our lives, allowing the lives of others, whoever they may be, with their needs and troubles, to touch our heart. That is what makes us neighbours to one another, what generates true fraternity and breaks down walls and barriers.

Thought for the day: Being busy is a sort of cultural value among us, and rightly. “If you want something done, ask a busy person.” But, of course, the question of balance arises. There are indeed other needs and other hungers. These include simple human things like time for friends.
Even hospitality, which is always work, can get in the way of really meeting. Something similar can be said of time for reflection, meditation and prayer. Time is not really the issue, after all, we manage to find time to waste on TV, tablets etc. It is more a question of insight, choice and decision, lest we overlook and even lose “the better part.” Prayer: Help us, Lord, to listen to the stirrings of our hearts. When we meet friends, help us to really meet. When we meet you, help us too to be present to you.

Pope's Intention for July: For Formation in Discernment. Let us pray that we might Gospel.

Prayer of Blessed Henry Newman:

O Lord, support us all day long, until the shadows lengthen, and the evening comes, and the busy world is hushed, and the fever of life is over, and our work is done. Then in your mercy, grant us a safe lodging and a holy rest, and peace at last.
