Thought for the Week:

Spiritual roadmap.

'Our Father', as taught by Jesus to his disciples in today's gospel, reveal life's meaning and a Christian identity: we are God's beloved sons and daughters. Pope Francis has reminded us that those words solve the problem of isolation, our sense of being orphans. They show us what we have to do: love God, our Father, and others, our brothers and sisters. As Catholics, we are called to overcome indifference and to treat everyone as brother and sister: including the unborn, the elderly, the immigrant, and the outcast.
