Reflection:

Life isn't all about the big wins.

Because it's the little wins
that are really the big things.

Those tiny moments that make your heart
sing.

Like those slow mornings that start with coffee and toast, followed by slow days with the ones those you love most.

It's getting warm after coming in from the cold, the laughs and smiles that come from the stories you've told.

Catching your breath after those hugs so tight; that moment of wonder when you can see the stars in the darkest of nights.
Life is too short and too precious to ignore the little things, to look past all the goodness.

Never underestimate the value in the seemingly mundane.

For, there's nothing little about the things,
that one day, you'd give anything to have again.

Thank You

On behalf of my brother Tadhg and myself, I would like to thank the many people from Boherbue/Kiskeam Parish who sympathised with us on the death of my father Michael last week. Your presence and kindness was much appreciated and we are so grateful for your Mass cards and messages of support and your presence at the Removal and Mass was a huge comfort to us after his untimely passing. We are very, very grateful.

Duhallow Sliabh Luachra Pastoral Area

incorporating the Parishes of Ballydesmond-Boherbue/Kiskeam-Dromtariffe-Millstreet-Rathmore

Fun Walk on Sun., 3rd Aug. at 3.00 p.m.

Each Sunday the Priests of the Pastoral Area travel around all the Parishes and meet wonderful people. Our Area Pastoral Council wish to give parishioners from the five Parishes a similar opportunity to meet up from time to time in a social setting. With this in mind, we have organised a fun walk near the source of the Blackwater on Sun., 3rd Aug. at 3 p.m. For those who use Google Maps: if you enter Cordal Wind Farm it will bring you to the place where the walk begins. For those not into technology, we will meet in the carpark beside Ballydesmond Church at 2.45 p.m. ... the convoy will depart to the windfarm at 2.50 p.m. sharp.

Prayer Meeting continues every Fri. at 8.00 p.m. in the Presbytery. All welcome.
