A Smile

A smile costs nothing yet gives so much. It enriches those who receive it without ever diminishing the giver. Lasting only a moment, its memory can linger forever. No one is too rich to do without it, and no one too poor to be unworthy of its warmth. A smile brings happiness to the home, goodwill to business, and comfort to those in pain. It cannot be bought, borrowed, or stolen—for it holds no value until it is freely given. And if, in the rush of life, you meet someone too weary to smile, offer one of yours. For no one needs a smile more than those who have none left to give.

The only time you should ever look back is to see how far you've come.
