REFLECTION

Autumn days remember our loved ones.

And so the autumn makes itself known to us in so many ways;
The trees shedding their leaves;
The multi-coloured dead leaves that lie on our pathways,
The shorter days and the longer evenings,
Light gives way to shadow and darkness
And thus we are reminded, and indeed remember, our loved ones who have died.

November is a month with its own energy;
It instils in us the gift of remembering those who have gone before us,
those who are now on the sli na firinne (the way of the truth)
We remember them and honour their memory,
We give thanks for them and their legacies that they left us;
Perhaps the legacy of integrity, simplicity, peace and above all,
Their faith, faith in God and their faith in broken humanity;
Their understanding from the depth of their being.

FINAL BLESSING

As we offer this Mass for the faithful departed,
Let us pray with confidence in God’s mercy.
May our loved ones find rest in Christ’s love.
May we live faithfully, ready to meet them in heaven’s joy.

God Bless, Fr. Noel 087-2935969
