A NOTE FROM FR. JIM.....

As I watch the leaves fall, I'm reminded of the cycle of life. Death comes to us all — yet for Christians, it is not something to fear. Each November, the Church reminds us that death is not the end, but the beginning of eternal life. We also recall the Communion of Saints — that our love and prayers continue to unite us with those who have gone before us. The souls in Purgatory, preparing for the perfection of Heaven, deeply appreciate the prayers and sacrifices we offer for them. St. Padre Pio, who had great love for the Holy Souls, once said: "The souls in Purgatory repay the prayers that we say for them. When they are in Heaven, they will never forget us." I invite you to join our Novena of Masses offered for our beloved dead. Here are the dates and times:

Sunday 2nd November -	9.30am - Our Lady of the Wayside, Clonkeen.
