Faith Changes Us.

Faith is like a mustard seed, small, and sometimes we may be tempted to wait till our faith grows. Part of the message of the gospel today is to use the faith we have, even though it may be small. That is how we grow in belief in ourselves and in God's presence in our lives. ~ Fr Gerard

Nicene Creed This year is 1700th anniversary of the first council of Nicaea. On Sunday 5 October 2025 we join with Christian Churches throughout Ireland to mark and remember Nicaea and the Nicene Creed which came from it. We hold this creed in common with Christians for the last 1700 years, around the world and across the traditions. This Sunday is an opportunity for shared witness and reflection on the core beliefs that unite us in Christ.

October is the month when we celebrate the missionary work of the Church around the world. During this month we ask people to share hope and solidarity with Worlds poorest people through prayer and little acts of kindness that we can carry out each day.

Seanfhocail: Mol an oige agus tiocfaidh siad.
Praise the youth and they will flourish.

Reflection

(1Cor.10:16-17)

One bread One body,

One Lord of all,

One cup of blessing which we bless.

And we, though many, throughout the earth,

We are one body in this One Lord.
