UHK – Annual Mass for patients who died in the Hospital, experienced pregnancy loss or who passed away in Palliative Care plus deceased employees will take place Monday 3 November at 7pm at St John's Church, Castle Street, Tralee. A livestream can be watched on www.churchservices.tv/tralee

Brosna Le Cheile would like to acknowledge the financial assistance received from the Department of Rural and Community Development and Kerry Co Co through the Local Enhancement Programme 2025 for the purchase of a picnic table for public use.

SING WITH JOY – a call out to all parish singers, guitar players, musicians and anyone interested in being part of a seasonal and fun singing experience. Brosna Choir is beginning its Christmas practice programme on Tuesday at 7.15pm (1 hour only) in the Gallery in Brosna Church. All ages (school to retired individuals welcome). Come, sing for Joy!

Brosna Le Cheile would like to acknowledge the financial assistance received from the Department of Rural and Community Development and Kerry Co Co through the Local Enhancement Programme 2025 for a grant to cover the cost of insurance for Le Cheile.

Why Saints matter in our world today: Saints matter because they serve as role models and intercessors for believers, demonstrating how to live a virtuous life and inspiring people to follow Christ. They show that it is possible to live a holy life and that God can work through ordinary people, even in difficult circumstances. They are also seen as guides and companions in faith.
