Thought for the day: When the news from the Middle East, the cradle of civilisation and faith, is so consistently dreadful, our dismay can easily devolve into despair. What about all the innocent lives lost? What of the old, the new-born, the newlyweds and so on? The devastation can be overwhelming, leaving us feeling both powerless and furious. And yet, at the centre of our faith is a deep conviction that the forces of evil and destruction are not, and will not be, the final word. Yes, it is terrible; but no, it is not the last word. God's faithfulness in Christ's resurrection assures us and invites us too to the same witness of fidelity, even against the odds.

Prayer: God of peace, in our time we hear of wars and rumours of wars. Help us not to fear, not to lose hope, but to trust you, our Rock, our only hope. Amen. (Fr Kieran O'Mahony)

Pope Leo XIV on 'X': We can respond to the demands of our vocation only if we place Christ at the center of our existence and mission. We start from our act of faith that leads us to recognize in Him the Savior, living it out in prayer, study, and the commitment to a holy life.

The Pope's Intention for November: For the Prevention of Suicide: Let us pray that those who are struggling with suicidal thoughts might find the support, care and love they need in their community, and be open to the beauty of life.

Mass for all who died, in the past year, in West Kerry Community Hospital will take place on Wednesday, November 26th at 2.00pm. Relatives of those that passed away in the hospital are invited to attend.
