The Kingship of Christ.

While earthly kings rule from palaces, Christ the King reigns from the cross. His kingdom is not a place, but a people who give their hearts lovingly to him by shaping their lives according to his will. To recognize Christ as the king of our lives may mean a change of heart, like the good thief, and a more honest approach in our way of living.~ Fr Gerard

Parish Collection Box Area Distributors are invited to come collect their boxes on the weekend of Nov. 29th & 30th. Boxes will be available at the back of the church after mass. We wish to thank all our distributors for their dedicated service to the parish.

Christ the King

When they came to the place called the Skull, there they crucified him, along with the criminals—one on his right, the other on his left. Luke 23:33 (NIV)

The puzzle is based on Luke 23:33-43 (NIV).

Reflection
(1Cor.10:16-17)
*One bread One body,
One Lord of all,
One cup of blessing which we bless.
And we, though many, throughout the earth,
We are one body in this One Lord.*

We remember.

In this month of November, with the decline of daylight, our minds turn to the natural cycle of life with its process of decline and death. We move between the moorings of memory and the horizon of hope. We take time to remember those people in our lives who have died. With the death of a loved one, a light goes out. Our lives seem darker without them. There is a light that can dispel the sadness of grief- the Light of Christ and belief in everlasting.

We ask the Lord to bless our memories of our beloved dead and comfort us in our sadness.
