A Tribute to Sr Stan

She walked where shadows gathered,
and carried light in gentle hands.
Where doors were closed, she knocked –
where hearts were broken, she listened.
Her faith was not a sermon but a shelter,
her prayers were deeds, her words were
bread.

In every soul she saw a home,
in every struggle, a seed of hope.
Sr Stan – a quiet flame against the dark,
a voice that would not tire of mercy.
She taught us that compassion is strength,
and that love, steadfast and simple, can change the world.

“Stillness is where the heart remembers what truly matters.”
by – Sr Stanislaus Kennedy
