Feast of the Holy Family

Message from Bishop Ray Browne: A happy and a faith-centred Christmas to one and all, to all homes, all families and all people living alone. It is wonderful that Christmas in Ireland remains so family centred for most people. For homes and families all year-round every week can be pressurized and busy, Christmas is almost the only time most people are at home with their family, a few days to unwind and catch up, time to see the bigger picture of their lives and to count their blessings. I pray God's blessing on every home in the diocese.

Lauragh Community Council have put up two trees this year, - one in Lauragh and one in Dawros. There are gold and red hearts in each church. Please write the name of your loved one on a heart and put it and a donation in the box provided. One of our volunteers will put the heart on the tree. The donations all go towards the upkeep of the four defibrillators in the parish.

Our annual Family Christmas Quiz is on in Helen's Bar on Sunday, December 28th @ 8.30 p.m. with great prizes. A super raffle for hampers and vouchers is also on offer. All welcome!

Dawros Community Centre: A 31-card drive will be held in Kenmare Golf Club on Thursday nights at 8.30 p.m. Cost €80 for a table of 8. Booking essential – contact Sinéad Morris O'Sullivan 0876815546 or Teddy
