Fr. Mossie Brick Retirement – As most of you will know, Fr. Mossie will retire as Parish Priest of Castleisland this summer. While he was not our Parish Priest here in Knocknagoshel, Fr. Mossie has been a regular visiting priest with us over the past number of years, celebrating Mass and helping out whenever needed.

Fr. Mossie brought a special warmth, kindness and sense of humour to our church. His visits were always looked forward to, and many parishioners will fondly remember leaving Mass with a smile on their faces after listening to his thoughtful words, gentle wit and uplifting message. He had a wonderful gift for making people feel welcome and at ease, and his presence among us was greatly appreciated.

There will be a Retirement Mass for Fr. Mossie in Castleisland on Friday 3rd July at 7.00pm. Fr. Mossie will celebrate his final Mass in Knocknagoshel on Sunday 21st June.

We thank Fr. Mossie for his friendship, his ministry and the many occasions he shared with our parish community over the years. We wish him every happiness, good health and God's blessings as he begins this well-deserved retirement. He will always be remembered with great affection in Knocknagoshel.

Graveyard Masses – Our annual graveyard Masses have been planned as follows:- St Marys Cemetery – Wednesday 12th August at 7pm. Knockane – Wednesday 19th August at 7pm. Both Graveyards will have a full Mass. The weather may not be with us but we will go ahead regardless.

St Josephs Mens Group, An Evening of Faith and Fellowship – All men are warmly invited to gather for an evening of prayer, reflection, conversation and community in Currow Parish Centre, on Sunday 21st June at 7.30pm. Guest speaker is Fr. Shane Sullivan. Join us as we seek to grow in faith.
