Second Sunday of Lent!

On this Second Sunday of Lent,

We are invited up the mountain with Jesus Christ.

In the Gospel, the disciples witness a moment of Glory and light.

They see Jesus transformed before them

Radiant, strong, filled with God’s presence.

It is a beautiful and comforting scene.

Yet this moment comes on the way to Jerusalem,

on the way to the cross.

Lent reminds us that faith is not only about mountain top experiences.

These are days of clarity and peace,

But there are also days of struggle, doubt, and sacrifice.

The message of this Sunday is simple:

Listen to Him. Trust Him. Stay with Him

Not only in moments of light, but also in moments of shadow.

This week, when life feels ordinary or challenging,

Remember the mountain.

Hold on to the truth that God is at work even when we cannot see the full picture.

Let that quiet trust guide your steps each day.
