Thought for the Week: God seeks us out.

Lent is a season when we are called to move from being an Adam and Eve figure to become more of a Christ figure. It is a time when we consciously strive to allow our lives to be shaped more by the story of Jesus than the story of Adam and Eve. During Lent we strive to identify the temptations that are most significant for us; and we invite the Lord to enter our lives more fully, so that the story of his faithfulness to God’s call becomes our story to a greater degree.

Seanfhocail: Anáil na beatha an t-athrú.
 Change is the breath of life.
