A NOTE FROM FR. JIM.....

Over the page you'll find the Stations of the Cross or "Way of Sorrows" or simply "The Way". It reminds us of the Passion of Jesus. The celebration of the Stations of the Cross is common on the Fridays of Lent, especially Good Friday. Here is a short version of "Stations of the Cross". We can meditate on these stations during our free time, wherever we are - be it office, school or home. These stations will help us to remember Jesus and his passion during the Lenten Season, amidst our busy schedules. As we read each station, let us picture Jesus and his agony in our minds. As we meditate on each station for a while, let us surrender our lives to Jesus. All our burdens, our sorrows, the crosses we carry and more importantly our sins. The "Way of the Cross" will help us to relate our lives with the Sufferings of Jesus.
