Excerpt from St. Patrick's Breast-Plate

Against every hostile merciless power Which may assail my body and my soul,
Against the incantations of false prophets,
Against the black laws of heathenism,
Against the false laws of heresy,
Against the deceits of idolatry,
Against the spells of women, and smiths, and druids,
Against every knowledge that binds the soul of man.

Thought for the Week: Seeing with the eyes of Christ.

The story of the blind man today is not just a story of a man who was cured of physical blindness. It is above all a story of a man who was enlightened by Christ and came to faith in him. What saved him was the fact that he had no problem in admitting his blindness. Are we humble enough to admit to our blindness – of selfishness, insensitivity, pride, hurry, materialism, etc.

Seanfhocail: Ní mairtre go daille.
Blindness is the worst kind of deformation.
