On Sunday April 19th the annual John Drumm Cup cycle race will take place in the Currow/Castleisland area from 10am until 4pm. As always, the local cooperation will be welcome, and motorists will be asked to obey Garda and race officials which may cause brief delays in the area. The youth racing in the morning will have laps from Currow village to Dicksgrove, onto Ballybeg returning by the metal bridge to the village. The Senior events will go from Currow Village, across Lower Dromulton, left at Davy Roche's cross, into Castleisland, left at Garvey's supermarket returning to Currow by the main road and Lisheenbawn. This will be 6 laps for the main event.

The Committee of the Old Folks Homes invites applications from elderly people from the local area for the tenancy of a one-bedroom house. For further details please contact Liz Reidy 089 9781705
