Vocations to the Priesthood in the Diocese of Kerry

On this Vocations Sunday, as a Church we pause to pray for our calling in life, especially to marriage, priesthood, and religious life. In a particular way, we remember the need for vocations to the priesthood in the Diocese of Kerry, asking the Lord to raise up generous hearts willing to serve His people. As a parish community, may we be attentive and courageous in encouraging those among us who may feel called to priesthood. Let us foster a spirit of prayer and support, creating an atmosphere where individuals can listen to God's voice and respond with trust and generosity

ROSARY AT THE GROTTTO

May is dedicated to Our Lady, a special time for prayer and reflection. You are warmly invited to visit our local grottos at Glenbeg and Coomakista and pray the Rosary, whether alone or with others. In the quiet of these sacred spaces, even a few moments of prayer can bring peace and hope. All are welcome to take part, in whatever way you can, during this month of May.

Gather, Pray, Connect

The Group meets every two weeks, offering those aged 18-35 a welcoming space to come together in friendship and faith. Gather with us in the Oratory in Waterville at 7:30pm (next gathering May 6th) for about an hour of prayer and reflection, followed by relaxed social time in the Fisherman's Bar. All are very welcome—for more info please contact Fr Sean.

Sanctuary Candle Remembrance

St. Crohan's
Patrick Curran
1st Anniversary

Beneath the quiet glow of the sanctuary light, we lift our hearts in prayerful remembrance.

In its gentle flame, the love of those we hold dear, burns on with sacred warmth.

Good Shepherd, on this Fourth Sunday of Easter, we listen for Your voice and trust in Your care.
Guide us gently through every doubt and fear, and lead us to places of peace and purpose.
Help us to recognize Your presence in our lives, to follow where You call, and to care for others with kindness and compassion.
Keep us close to You, Lord, today and always. Amen
