Messengers of Easter.

All those to whom the risen Lord appeared were sent out as messengers of Easter hope and joy, as agents of new life. Easter, the feast of life, sends all of us forth to create a culture of life. We are faithful to the Easter calling whenever we help others to make new beginnings. This is our baptismal calling. Easter is a day to renew our response to our baptismal calling. ~ Fr Gerard

Easter Dues: The Easter Dues collection for the Priests of our Pastoral Area is due in the yellow striped envelope marked 5th April. Thank you all for your continuing support at this time.

A Special Thank You to the Liturgy Group who decorated the Church and helped in the preparation of the Liturgy, Ministers of the Eucharist, altar servers, readers, singers, musicians & floral arrangers & all helpers who gave of their time to make the Easter Ceremonies so special this year. Ni neart go cur le cheile.

Trocaire: If you wish to contribute to Trocaire please use the purple striped envelope, dated 12th April with Trocaire marked on the front. There are also a limited number of boxes and special envelopes available at the end of the church if anyone would rather contribute this way. We share during these difficult times with the impoverished people of the Third World.

This October, Focus Ireland's Camino de Santiago Pilgrimage is returning. If you've ever dreamed of completing the Camino, or if you feel called to take part in a faith-filled journey alongside a supportive community, this is a beautiful opportunity to do so while helping to change the lives of families and individuals in need here at home. To help you learn more about the pilgrimage, we're hosting an online information evening on Thursday, April 9 at 8:00pm at focusireland.ie

Are you ready to help build a better world? Why not become a Laudato Si' Animator to bring prayer and action for climate justice together? This free online course begins on April 15th and is available for all who are interested in exploring care for creation through the lens of faith and spirituality.
