Diocesan/Community News

County Clean Up – Dear Wonderful Volunteers, can you please pick up your bags and pickers from outside James McAuliffe's house in The Square on 11 April 2026. You can complete the clean up anytime during the following week. Filled bags should be left outside the Hall before end of Friday, 17 April. For further information, please contact James on 087 949 3407. As ever, thank you James and volunteers for all you do to keep our Parish so lovely.

Journeying Through Lent – there are a limited number of Diocesan prayer leaflets at the end of the Church that provide a lovely prayer guide through Lent.

The guide is as follows:

Wednesdays	Opening our Hearts to God
Thursdays	Listening to God's word for Life
Fridays	Becoming God's heart of compassion in the world
Saturdays	Standing in solidarity with those who are suffering
Sundays	Giving thanks to God for the gift of life
Mondays	Recognising God in the bits and pieces of the day
Tuesdays	Recognising God in the stranger

In the absence of Fr Spillane, I wish to acknowledge the kind assistance of the following priests and Diocese personnel who are helping cover our services:

Fr Richard O'Connor Easter Saturday services across both churches.
 Fr Dan Lane Knockaclarig Mass on Easter Sunday.

Many thanks to all the priests who are helping us and to Noreen in the Castleisland Office who has coordinated cover for our services.

We send prayers and best wishes to Fr Martin Spillane.

Diocesan/Community News

County Clean Up – Dear Wonderful Volunteers, can you please pick up your bags and pickers from outside James McAuliffe's house in The Square on 11 April 2026. You can complete the clean up anytime during the following week. Filled bags should be left outside the Hall before end of Friday, 17 April. For further information, please contact James on 087 949 3407. As ever, thank you James and volunteers for all you do to keep our Parish so lovely.

Journeying Through Lent – there are a limited number of Diocesan prayer leaflets at the end of the Church that provide a lovely prayer guide through Lent.

The guide is as follows:

Wednesdays	Opening our Hearts to God
Thursdays	Listening to God's word for Life
Fridays	Becoming God's heart of compassion in the world
Saturdays	Standing in solidarity with those who are suffering
Sundays	Giving thanks to God for the gift of life
Mondays	Recognising God in the bits and pieces of the day
Tuesdays	Recognising God in the stranger

In the absence of Fr Spillane, I wish to acknowledge the kind assistance of the following priests and Diocese personnel who are helping cover our services:

Fr Richard O'Connor Easter Saturday services across both churches.
 Fr Dan Lane Knockaclarig Mass on Easter Sunday.

Many thanks to all the priests who are helping us and to Noreen in the Castleisland Office who has coordinated cover for our services.

We send prayers and best wishes to Fr Martin Spillane.

For further information, please contact James on 087 949 3407. As ever, thank you James and volunteers for all you do to keep our Parish so lovely.

Journeying Through Lent – there are a limited number of Diocesan prayer leaflets at the end of the Church that provide a lovely prayer guide through Lent.

The guide is as follows:

Wednesdays Opening our Hearts to God
Thursdays Listening to God's word for Life
Fridays Becoming God's heart of compassion in the world
Saturdays Standing in solidarity with those who are suffering
Sundays Giving thanks to God for the gift of life
Mondays Recognising God in the bits and pieces of the day
Tuesdays Recognising God in the stranger

In the absence of Fr Spillane, I wish to acknowledge the kind assistance of the following priests and Diocese personnel who are helping cover our services:

Fr Richard O'Connor Easter Saturday services across both churches.
 Fr Dan Lane Knockaclarig Mass on Easter Sunday.

Many thanks to all the priests who are helping us and to Noreen in the Castleisland Office who has coordinated cover for our services.

We send prayers and best wishes to Fr Martin Spillane.

County Clean Up – Dear Wonderful Volunteers, can you please pick up your bags and pickers from outside James McAuliffe's house in The Square on 11 April 2026. You can complete the clean up anytime during the following week. Filled bags should be left outside the Hall before end of Friday, 17 April. For further information, please contact James on 087 949 3407. As ever, thank you James and volunteers for all you do to keep our Parish so lovely.

Journeying Through Lent – there are a limited number of Diocesan prayer leaflets at the end of the Church that provide a lovely prayer guide through Lent.

The guide is as follows:

Wednesdays	Opening our Hearts to God
Thursdays	Listening to God's word for Life
Fridays	Becoming God's heart of compassion in the world
Saturdays	Standing in solidarity with those who are suffering
Sundays	Giving thanks to God for the gift of life
Mondays	Recognising God in the bits and pieces of the day
Tuesdays	Recognising God in the stranger

In the absence of Fr Spillane, I wish to acknowledge the kind assistance of the following priests and Diocese personnel who are helping cover our services:

Fr Richard O'Connor Easter Saturday services across both churches.
 Fr Dan Lane Knockaclarig Mass on Easter Sunday.

Many thanks to all the priests who are helping us and to Noreen in the Castleisland Office who has coordinated cover for our services.

Diocesan/Community News

County Clean Up – Dear Wonderful Volunteers, can you please pick up your bags and pickers from outside James McAuliffe's house in The Square on 11 April 2026. You can complete the clean up anytime during the following week. Filled bags should be left outside the Hall before end of Friday, 17 April. For further information, please contact James on 087 949 3407. As ever, thank you James and volunteers for all you do to keep our Parish so lovely.

Journeying Through Lent – there are a limited number of Diocesan prayer leaflets at the end of the Church that provide a lovely prayer guide through Lent.

The guide is as follows:

Wednesdays	Opening our Hearts to God
Thursdays	Listening to God's word for Life
Fridays	Becoming God's heart of compassion in the world
Saturdays	Standing in solidarity with those who are suffering
Sundays	Giving thanks to God for the gift of life
Mondays	Recognising God in the bits and pieces of the day
Tuesdays	Recognising God in the stranger

In the absence of Fr Spillane, I wish to acknowledge the kind assistance of the following priests and Diocese personnel who are helping cover our services:

Fr Richard O'Connor	Easter Saturday services across both churches.
Fr Dan Lane	Knockaclarig Mass on Easter Sunday.

Many thanks to all the priests who are helping us and to Noreen in the Castleisland Office who has coordinated cover for our services.

We send prayers and best wishes to Fr Martin Spillane.

County Clean Up – Dear Wonderful Volunteers, can you please pick up your bags and pickers from outside James McAuliffe's house in The Square on 11 April 2026. You can complete the clean up anytime during the following week. Filled bags should be left outside the Hall before end of Friday, 17 April. For further information, please contact James on 087 949 3407. As ever, thank you James and volunteers for all you do to keep our Parish so lovely.

Journeying Through Lent – there are a limited number of Diocesan prayer leaflets at the end of the Church that provide a lovely prayer guide through Lent.

The guide is as follows:

Wednesdays	Opening our Hearts to God
Thursdays	Listening to God's word for Life
Fridays	Becoming God's heart of compassion in the world
Saturdays	Standing in solidarity with those who are suffering
Sundays	Giving thanks to God for the gift of life
Mondays	Recognising God in the bits and pieces of the day
Tuesdays	Recognising God in the stranger

In the absence of Fr Spillane, I wish to acknowledge the kind assistance of the following priests and Diocese personnel who are helping cover our services:

Fr Richard O'Connor Easter Saturday services across both churches.
 Fr Dan Lane Knockaclarig Mass on Easter Sunday.

Many thanks to all the priests who are helping us and to Noreen in the Castleisland Office who has coordinated cover for our services.

We send prayers and best wishes to Fr Martin Spillane.

County Clean Up – Dear Wonderful Volunteers, can you please pick up your bags and pickers from outside James McAuliffe's house in The Square on 11 April 2026. You can complete the clean up anytime during the following week. Filled bags should be left outside the Hall before end of Friday, 17 April. For further information, please contact James on 087 949 3407. As ever, thank you James and volunteers for all you do to keep our Parish so lovely.

Journeying Through Lent – there are a limited number of Diocesan prayer leaflets at the end of the Church that provide a lovely prayer guide through Lent.

The guide is as follows:

Wednesdays	Opening our Hearts to God
Thursdays	Listening to God's word for Life
Fridays	Becoming God's heart of compassion in the world
Saturdays	Standing in solidarity with those who are suffering
Sundays	Giving thanks to God for the gift of life
Mondays	Recognising God in the bits and pieces of the day
Tuesdays	Recognising God in the stranger

Diocesan/Community News

County Clean Up – Dear Wonderful Volunteers, can you please pick up your bags and pickers from outside James McAuliffe's house in The Square on 11 April 2026. You can complete the clean up anytime during the following week. Filled bags should be left outside the Hall before end of Friday, 17 April. For further information, please contact James on 087 949 3407. As ever, thank you James and volunteers for all you do to keep our Parish so lovely.

Journeying Through Lent – there are a limited number of Diocesan prayer leaflets at the end of the Church that provide a lovely prayer guide through Lent.

The guide is as follows:

Wednesdays	Opening our Hearts to God
Thursdays	Listening to God's word for Life
Fridays	Becoming God's heart of compassion in the world
Saturdays	Standing in solidarity with those who are suffering
Sundays	Giving thanks to God for the gift of life
Mondays	Recognising God in the bits and pieces of the day
Tuesdays	Recognising God in the stranger

In the absence of Fr Spillane, I wish to acknowledge the kind assistance of the following priests and Diocese personnel who are helping cover our services:

Fr Richard O'Connor	Easter Saturday services across both churches.
Fr Dan Lane	Knockaclarig Mass on Easter Sunday.

Many thanks to all the priests who are helping us and to Noreen in the Castleisland Office who has coordinated cover for our services.

We send prayers and best wishes to Fr Martin Spillane.

County Clean Up – Dear Wonderful Volunteers, can you please pick up your bags and pickers from outside James McAuliffe's house in The Square on 11 April 2026. You can complete the clean up anytime during the following week. Filled bags should be left outside the Hall before end of Friday, 17 April. For further information, please contact James on 087 949 3407. As ever, thank you James and volunteers for all you do to keep our Parish so lovely.

Journeying Through Lent – there are a limited number of Diocesan prayer leaflets at the end of the Church that provide a lovely prayer guide through Lent.

The guide is as follows:

Wednesdays	Opening our Hearts to God
Thursdays	Listening to God's word for Life
Fridays	Becoming God's heart of compassion in the world
Saturdays	Standing in solidarity with those who are suffering
Sundays	Giving thanks to God for the gift of life
Mondays	Recognising God in the bits and pieces of the day
Tuesdays	Recognising God in the stranger

In the absence of Fr Spillane, I wish to acknowledge the kind assistance of the following priests and Diocese personnel who are helping cover our services:

Fr Richard O'Connor Easter Saturday services across both churches.
 Fr Dan Lane Knockaclarig Mass on Easter Sunday.

Many thanks to all the priests who are helping us and to Noreen in the Castleisland Office who has coordinated cover for our services.

We send prayers and best wishes to Fr Martin Spillane.

Fr Richard O'Connor Easter Saturday services across both churches.
 Fr Dan Lane Knockaclarig Mass on Easter Sunday.

Many thanks to all the priests who are helping us and to Noreen in the Castleisland Office who has coordinated cover for our services.

We send prayers and best wishes to Fr Martin Spillane.

County Clean Up – Dear Wonderful Volunteers, can you please pick up your bags and pickers from outside James McAuliffe's house in The Square on 11 April 2026. You can complete the clean up anytime during the following week. Filled bags should be left outside the Hall before end of Friday, 17 April. For further information, please contact James on 087 949 3407. As ever, thank you James and volunteers for all you do to keep our Parish so lovely.

Journeying Through Lent – there are a limited number of Diocesan prayer leaflets at the end of the Church that provide a lovely prayer guide through Lent.

The guide is as follows:

Wednesdays	Opening our Hearts to God
Thursdays	Listening to God's word for Life
Fridays	Becoming God's heart of compassion in the world
Saturdays	Standing in solidarity with those who are suffering
Sundays	Giving thanks to God for the gift of life
Mondays	Recognising God in the bits and pieces of the day
Tuesdays	Recognising God in the stranger
