Prayer for Vocations

God our Father,

we thank you for calling men and women to serve in your Son's Kingdom as priests, deacons, and consecrated persons.

Send your Holy Spirit to help others to respond generously and courageously to your call.

May our community of faith support vocations of sacrificial love in our youth and young adults.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen

Pope Leo's Monthly Intention May

That everyone might have food:

Let us pray that everyone, from large producers to small consumers, be committed to avoid wasting food, and to ensure that everyone has access to quality food.

Opening Comment

Each Sunday in Easter time, we celebrate the gifts we have received in Baptism and Confirmation. We rejoice that the Spirit is our Advocate, who continues to support us in the difficulties of life.

Vocations: We continue to pray for vocations to the Priesthood. Lets put the question out there to someone we might feel has a Religious vocation. Did you ever consider becoming a Priest?

Penitential Rite

As we gather for this celebration, Let us prepare ourselves for our participation in it. let us call to mind in our lives. we rely on the Spirit's help in our weakness

You raise the dead to life in the Spirit:

Lord, have mercy.

You bring pardon and peace to the sinner:

Christ, have mercy.

You bring light to those in darkness:

Lord, have mercy.

Prayer

Faithful God, who love us in Christ Jesus, send your Spirit of truth to dwell within us, that we may always reject what is false, live by the commands of Christ, and be true to the love you have shown us. Grant this through Jesus Christ, the resurrection and the life, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever.

Introduction to the Scripture Readings

Acts 8:5-8, 14-17 — Describes the continuing successes in the early Church, and the giving of the Spirit to new believers.

1 Peter 3:15-18 — Peter writes that Christians should be able to give a reason for the hope that is in them.

John 14:15-21 — Jesus repeats his commandment of love, and promises the gift of the Spirit.

FEAST DAY OF ST. BRENDAN;

Our Patron Saint of our Diocese fall on Saturday the 16th of May. St Brendan went forth to share the Good News of the Gospel and his courage in facing the dangerous unknown of the ocean is a model of Christian mission. St Brendan believed his future was in the hands of God. May all students coping with upcoming exams at both second and third level. Have the courage of St. Brendan to place themselves in the Lord's Hands as he did. May all who a considering a vocation to the Priesthood or religious life place themselves in the Lords Hand a he did.

Seeing Your Life Though The Lens Of The Gospel

1. 'If you love me, you will keep my commandments', and specifically the commandment to love one another (cf. 13.34). How have you experienced the link between love of God and love of those around you?
2. Jesus is preparing his disciples for his imminent departure and for a future in which he would be with them in a different way. He would not 'leave them orphans' but send an 'Advocate' to 'be with (them) for ever'. 'He is with you, he is in you'. How have you experienced the presence of God with you in your life?
3. Perhaps you have also experienced the challenge of preparing another (a child, a friend) for a time when you would no longer be physically together. Recall how you gave the message of your ongoing support.
4. How have you experienced the presence and support of a loved one (parent, spouse, friend) when circumstances have separated you from them?
5. The proof of the ongoing presence of Jesus with his disciples is that 'I live and you will live'. Discipleship is about much more than rules and regulations. It is about being alive. How has discipleship helped you to be more fully alive?
