"Called to Be Christ for One Another"

On this Fifth Sunday of Easter, Jesus says to us: "Do not let your hearts be troubled... I am the way, the truth, and the life." These words are spoken not just to the disciples long ago, but to each of us in the middle of our ordinary lives.

Here in our parish, in the faith communities of Caherdaniel, Castlecove & Lohar, we are reminded that every life is sacred and each person has a part to play. In quiet acts of kindness, in prayer, and in simply being there for one another, we become the comforting presence of Jesus in our community.

We are truly blessed by all who help build up parish life in any way. This Sunday, we give thanks and pray for each one of you.
May you know that your presence and your contribution matter,
and that through you, Christ continues His work among us.

Three Mystics - Three Evenings: A beautiful three evening introduction to three mystics in the Christian tradition will run from May 21st - 23rd in the Caherdaniel Parish Hall. Talks will be delivered by Fr Brendan Comerford S.J (Jesuit). More details next week. Mark the diary.

Sanctuary Candle Remembrance

St. Crohan's Healing for the sick

Beneath the quiet glow of the sanctuary light, we lift our hearts in prayerful remembrance.

*In its gentle flame,
the love of those we hold dear, burns on with sacred warmth.*

To sponsor a candle for intentions, living or deceased, contact Anne in the Parish Office

Lord of new life,
on this Fifth Sunday of Easter, renew our hearts in Your love.
Teach us to follow Your command to love one another as You have loved us.
Help us to live as signs of hope and mercy in the world.
May Your presence guide us,
Your peace fill us,
and Your joy remain with us always.
Amen.
