"Called to Be Christ for One Another"

On this Fifth Sunday of Easter, Jesus says to us: "Do not let your hearts be troubled... I am the way, the truth, and the life." These words are spoken not just to the disciples long ago, but to each of us in the middle of our ordinary lives.

Here in our parish, in the faith communities of Waterville and Dromod, we are reminded that every life is sacred and each person has a part to play. In quiet acts of kindness, in prayer, and in simply being there for one another, we become the comforting presence of Jesus in our community.

We are truly blessed by all who help build up parish life in any way.
This Sunday, we give thanks and pray for each one of you. May you know that your presence and your contribution matter, and that through you, Christ continues His work among us.
