A Gentle Reminder after the Holidays

I don't think we talk enough about how exhausting the holidays can be for people-pleasers. When you're wired to scan for approval and safety, your nervous system stays on high alert - and during the holidays, with all of the added expectations and family dynamics, that vigilance only deepens. It's no wonder the body feels depleted once it's all over. If this resonates, gently let your body know it's safe to rest now. Let the parts of you that have been working so hard to protect and hold everything together soften and step back.
