Mission Appeal The Spiritan Fathers Welcome one and All

The Spiritans also known as Holy Ghost Fathers, are a Catholic religious congregation founded in France in 1703. They are dedicated to evangelising the poor and marginalised worldwide. Over the years, they have established a presence in over 60 countries. As part of the financial appeal to parishioners, the Fathers will share their own mission experiences. The Spiritans are known for their missionary work, which includes providing chaplains in hospitals, prisons and schools and sending missionaries to various regions, including the Far East and North America. They continue to be a vital part of the Church's mission to spread the Gospel and support those in need. We welcome Fr. Martin Kelly, Fr. John Brown and Fr. Pat Palmer to our parish Masses This weekend 13/14 June

About Today

As people loved and chosen by God, we gather to listen and share, before being sent out to live what we believe.

As a parish community we encourage and pray vocation to the Priesthood, and put the question out there to someone you may feel has a vocation to the Priesthood;

Penitential Rite:
As we enter into this celebration, and our participation in it let us call to mind our sins:

The Gospel challenges our faith, so we turn to our God of healing and mercy: (pause)
 Lord Jesus, you healed the sick:

Lord, have mercy.

Lord Jesus, you forgave sinners:

Christ have mercy.

Lord Jesus, you gave us yourself to heal us and bring us strength:

Lord, have mercy.

Opening Prayer

Compassionate God, your word calls labourers to the harvest. Send us who are blest with the gift of your kingdom to announce its coming with gladness and to manifest its healing power. We make our prayer through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever.

Introduction to the Scripture Readings

Exodus 19:2-6 — The first reading contains a reminder of God's care for the people of Israel, our ancestors in faith.

Romans 5:6-11 — St Paul explains that the death of Jesus proves God's love.

Matthew 9:36 to 10:8 — In the Gospel, Jesus shows compassion for the people by appointing apostles to heal the sick and cast out demons

Seeing Your Life Though
 The Lens Of The Gospel
 Mt 9:36-10:8

1. Jesus allowed himself to be touched by the needs of the crowd. When you are with people, what difference does it make to the way you relate to them when you have empathy with them?

2. The commission Jesus gave the twelve, 'to cure all kinds of diseases and sickness' is a reminder to us that we all have the capacity to be an influence for good in the lives of others. In this we continue the mission of Jesus (cf. St Teresa's Prayer). When have you experienced yourself as having a healing or life-giving influence on another person? Who has had that influence on you?

3. At a first glance it might seem that Jesus made some bad choices in his twelve apostles. One will deny Jesus, another will betray him and others are only interested in who will be first. All of them will run away in the end. This reminds us that all kinds can share in the mission of Jesus, no matter how we see ourselves.

4. The instructions Jesus gave the disciples before he sent them out have a note of urgency about them. What difference does it make for you when you approach a task with a sense of urgency?

5. He also tells them their service charge, keeping in mind what they have received without charge from God. Remember when you have received generous and undemanding love from another.

PRAYER FOR PRIESTS
 St Therèse of the Child Jesus

O Jesus, I pray for your faithful and fervent priests;
 for your unfaithful and tepid priests;
 for your priests labouring at home or abroad in distant mission fields;
 for your tempted priests;
 for your lonely and desolate priests;
 for your young priests;
 for your dying priests;
 for the souls of your priests in purgatory.
 But above all, I recommend to you the priests dearest to me:
 the priest who baptised me;
 the priests who absolved me from my sins;
 the priests at whose Masses I assisted and who gave me your Body and Blood in Holy Communion;
 the priests who taught and instructed me;
 all the priests to whom I am indebted in any other way (especially ...).
 O Jesus, keep them all close to your heart, and bless them abundantly in time and in eternity. Amen.
