Fear No One!

Why would we fear? For Jeremiah, his enemies were trying to destroy him physically. Many of us do not have that kind of situation. In some parts of the world, this danger still exists. For them, the words of Jeremiah have a special ring of truth.

For us who live in peace and developed countries, the danger is spiritual. This is a more subtle danger. It is so easy to accept the comfortable values of our present societies.

Jesus is so clear in the Gospel from Matthew: do not fear those who can kill the body. Fear those who can destroy the soul. We who are materially wealthy stand in great danger of losing our souls. We are always invited to disbelief in God. We are told over and over again through subtle advertising that we cannot be happy without the pleasures and the material goods of this world.

Jesus preaches a very different Gospel. Jesus tells us that real happiness comes from belief in God, from seeking the will of the Father, from giving to others, from sharing what we have with those who do not have, from praying and from forgiving. Jesus does not invite us to have absolutely nothing—but always the challenge is there: What are we doing with what we have? Are we loving God and loving one another? What are we doing in your daily life? Are we seeking only your own pleasures or are we seeking the Kingdom of God?

So often we long for material pleasures and the delights of this world. Jesus invites us to recognize that there is another world in which the values do not exclude pleasure and delight, but in which other values are much more important. When one person sins, others are encouraged to sin. When one person chooses to live according to the will of God, others can begin to grasp that there is another world. Jesus had a remarkable gift of convincing others of the Kingdom of God. Jesus is God, of course, but He invites us also to share His life and share that gift of encouraging others of the Kingdom of God by our manner of living.

May we love the Lord our God and may the way we live show forth clearly that the Kingdom of Heaven is in our midst. May we live now in such a way that gives testimony to the love of God and to life everlasting. May we have no fear!

Prayer to Overcome Fear

Dear Father, our hearts and minds are Flooded with many fears. Sometimes we Become paralysed, and feel unable to go on.

These fears are overwhelming.

They remain with us day and night

Yet we hold on to your truth

You have told us not to fear

for you have overcome the world

So we cling to you, we trust in your promise that you will never fail us, never forsake us

In moments of such fear

we choose to hold your hand

Help me not be paralysed by my fears

But when I am afraid, help me to trust you

In you all promises meet and new life begins

You are the Saviour, we hide in you

Protected by your love and sheltered in your grace. Amen.
