Tuosist Community Council meets monthly to plan local development. At the moment we are working on new signage for the area and improvements to the layby at the top of the Healy Pass. We are also working on Tidy Towns projects for 2026, to extend our biodiversity trail. To contact us about anything, email tuosistcomco@gmail.com.

Our biggest project is our genealogy project, Éigse Seán Ó Súilleabháin Social History Project: "Keeping the Past Alive", documenting the families of Tuosist in the 1800s and 1900s. Our next meetings are for:

Drombohilly Lower on Sunday July 26th in Lauragh Community Centre at 2 p.m.

Glenmore and Dromaclaurig on Thursday July 30th in Lauragh Community Centre at 7 p.m.

Please join us if you have connections to these areas, and please bring along any older neighbours or family members.

Kenmare Memory Café Tuesday 30th June, 11 a.m. - 12.30 p.m. at The Lansdowne Hotel, Kenmare. There will be a summer break until September after this Café.

Guest Speakers are Lorraine and Jerry from Chime, Killarney. Chime is Ireland's national charity for people who are hard of hearing. Refreshments and a singsong to follow. For more information, contact: niamh.murphy@alzheimer.ie or call 0872165104
