A Way Through

I keep thinking about how God could have moved the Red Sea instead of splitting it in two.

But He didn't remove the obstacle, He chose to make a way through it.

And I guess it's kind of like that with us too. The big things that stand in our way don't always disappear - we were never promised that.

We were promised a path where we never imagined a path.

 Of all the mines of treasure, one's own is the last to be dug up".*
