Thought for the Day: Again, today we have two versions of the one parable, the original and a later church interpretation or reception. Communities of faith are always "mixed," in that some people are fully engaged, some are half-hearted and many, perhaps most, are somewhere in between. What to do? The temptation to go for a radical, purified church has been a recurring one across history. The teaching of this parable is let things alone, it is not for us to judge. It could be that less committed believers may change and a welcoming, compassionate approach may enable that to happen. Prayer: Jesus, your compassion to all inspires us today to recognise our own need of your grace. Help us work on the plank in our own eyes before we dare to recognise, much less to offer to remove, a splinter in our neighbour's eye. Amen. (Fr Kieran O'Mahony)

Pope Leo XIV on X: Unfortunately, the winds of war are blowing once again in the Middle East, in Ukraine and in many other parts of the world, sowing violence, terror and death, and once again affecting many innocent people. Let us not allow these winds to extinguish the flame of hope and peace, even when it seems fragile and flickering. I renew my hope that we will persevere on the path of dialogue, encounter and diplomacy. This is the only path capable of leading to a just and lasting peace, in which peoples can live in reconciliation, mutual security and respect for the dignity of every person.

Donate terminals, located at the back of St Mary's Church, are programmed to donate €5 to the Parish each time they are used.

Gluten Free hosts are available from the priest at Communion time.
