A Summer Welcome and a Gospel Reflection!

*As we enjoy these days of sunshine, many of us are taking the opportunity to slow down, spend time with family and friends, and appreciate the beauty of God's creation
all around us. We extend a warm welcome to everyone visiting Cahersiveen and the wider South Kerry area.
May your time here be restful, enjoyable and filled with the hospitality for which our communities are well known for.*

*In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus tells the parable
of the wheat and the weeds.*

*Rather than rushing to pull up the weeds,
The landowner patiently waits until the harvest.
It is a reminder that God sees the whole picture,
while we often see only a part.*

*We are called to be patient with ourselves
and with one another, trusting that God continues his work of grace in every life.
Best wishes to all involved in our local Gaelic games
during these busy summer weeks.*

*May sport continue to foster friendship, team-work
and community spirit.*

Wishing everyone a safe, peaceful and blessed week.
