Reflection

There are fears that cripple us –
Of being let down, of losing the capacity to trust, of how children will turn out, of death, illness and old age.
Of losing a job or never getting one, of failure in a college course,
of not being loved or liked.

Fear is like a red light stopping us moving forward and it's crippling if it gets us stuck like a light never changing to green.
Jesus answers us simply ..."be not afraid", because he is always with us.

We have the security of a constant companion.

Lord, help us to trust in your loving presence
today and every day.

Amen.
