JUST A THOUGHT

Every day we make decisions. Some are straightforward and done without much thought. More can be difficult especially when we are pulled in different directions. It is good advice not to rush into any important decision, but there always comes a point when we have to decide. Sometimes our decisions are not always the correct ones, but all we can do is our best and what we think is right at that particular moment. We ask God's guidance and direction with difficult and brave decisions.
